IPMS/USA Support the Troops Initiative

The IPMS/USA initiative was established to provide model kits, supplies and reference materials to our servicemen and women serving in combat zones, recovering in hospitals, and rehabilitating in specialized facilities. The program is expanding into other areas as well. Some local programs take place in USO facilities, some are centered around active duty personnel and are scattered across the country. The IPMS/USA Support The Troops program is still going full-tilt. The national program director is Jon Emery. Jon is accepting any and all contributions and is sharing them with all of the active programs around the country.

PRESIDENT'S SOAPBOX

BY TIM ROBB

Hi All.

We have a fun meeting this month. We have a Sci-fi and Gundam themed quarterly contest with Lionheart Hobby gift cards for the top three models. Jackson Hunter will give us a presentation on the slap chop method for mini figure painting.

This month we are going to change the order of activities in our meeting. After greetings and introductions we will get right to the presentation, then follow that with the quarterly contest. Business will be addressed after the break.

We've had a busy month, completing the refurbishing of the Bergstrom History model display at Bergstrom Intl. Airport, participating in Scalefest 2024 in Grapevine, three of us making a visit to the San Antonio meeting where Dana Mathes' judging reform initiative was discussed, and topped off with a successful and very fun BBQ and kit auction event held at the Hauptrief home. Lots of fun and good things are happening with ASMS.

Come join the fun and remember, make time in your schedule to GO BUILD A MODEL!

Building the Hobby Boss FJ-4

by Tim Robb

The FJ-4B was the last of the Naval FJ Fury series of fighters from North American. The first, the FJ-1 was a straight wing design produced in limited numbers and briefly served with only one squadron. It did not pass carrier qualifications.

The second, the FJ-2 was a navalized version of the F86E with a longer nose gear strut, arresting gear, and upgunned to four 20mm cannons. It was a different airplane than the FJ-1 and as such should have been the F2J but it was more politically expedient to alter the already approved FJ-1 contract so FJ-2 it was. The Marines ended up with them.

The following FJ-3 got it right, adding folding wings among other corrections. It was operated by 23 squadrons. Late production FJ-3s were capable of carrying Sidewinder missiles and were designated FJ-3M.

The FJ-4 was a new airplane and again should have been F2J or F3J but it was still easier to keep changing the existing contract. All FJ4-Js were Sidewinder capable so there was no M suffix.

The FJ-4B had a strengthened wing with three hard points per wing instead of two on the FJ-4 and the Low Altitude Bombing System (LABS) for delivering tactical nukes. The FJ-4B also had a second set of speed brakes added low on the fuselage near the tail pipe. The second set of speed brakes is the visible difference between the FJ-4 and the FJ-4B.

FJ-4Bs entered service in December 1956. FJ-4s and 4Bs were all phased out of front line service as of 1962.

Hobby Boss' FJ-4B kit isn't an FJ-4B. There is no provision for the second set of speed brakes. The pylons and ordinance for the three hard point FJ-4B wing are provided. During assembly holes are opened from the inside the wing for the pylon fit desired.

The kit assembles well with good part fit. Cockpit detail is good OOB, but could be enhanced by super detailers. I just added seat belts. The kit speed brakes are designed to be posed open. Why do kit manufacturers do that? I did not find any photos of parked FJ-4s with open speed brakes. When you glue them in the closed position they don't fit well. Filling and sanding is required.

Likewise photos of parked FJ-4s show some of the gear doors up, two of three on the mains and one of two on the nose. Again they are separate parts and don't fit well when installed closed. More filling and sanding.

Decals are provided for a Navy FJ-4B and a USMC FJ-4. Curiously there is no bureau number decal provided for the FJ-4. A friend made them for me. The kit decals worked well using the MicroScale system. Upper wing insignia and modex decals are split to fit around the wing fences. The split on the insignia decals doesn't allow for the thickness of the wing fence. I battled through this piercing one side of the insignia.

All decaled, sealed and ready for panel line wash I found the panel lines aren't crisp enough to hold a wash well or maybe it's just me. I ended up using a Prismacolor medium gray pencil to apply panel lines.

These were drawn over a clear flat finish. My mistakes were easily erased with my Pink Pearl and the re-drawn.

Some kits I build have fiddly bits with the landing gear, not this one. The landing gear fits and the parts engineering is very good. This model was an easy one to get the gear on aligned properly. What a pleasure!

Model finished, I like how it came out.

The references I used were Squadron Signal FJ Fury in action by Jim Mesko, and FJ Fury in Detail & Scale by Bert Kinzey.

ASMS' display at Austin Bergstrom International Airport

by Tim Robb

As some of you know when ABIA was being built 25 years ago they approached ASMS about a model plane display commemorating the history of Bergstrom AFB.

In short, they built cool airfoil shaped aluminum and plexiglas display cases which we filled with 1/72 models and they supplied the signage for the display. The display is currently located in the baggage claim area.

The group I met with is charged with maintaining it. It is in fantastically good condition for being 25 years old. They dust monthly.

The original signage crediting ASMS and giving ASMS contact info is all still good except the contact info. Milton's land line number will be replaced with the email address president@austinsms.org. so it will be good whoever our future presidents are.

ABIA wants to link our websites, I said yes. We ought to spotlight this display with a short story and photos on ours. They said cool.

There are 6 models that need various repairs. The most challenging will be the C-118. Ron McCracken ASMS 'resident 1/72nd ace aircraft builder volunteered to tackle the C-118 and to build an F101 to fill an empty slot in the case.

There was a ceremony Wed. May 22 celebrating the 25th anniversary of the airport.

Ron was able to do an extraordinary job on restoring the C118 including tackling the sagging dihedral. He was also able to locate and build a newly released Valom kit of an F101 with Bergstrom decals

2024 Scalefest Model Show

by Tim Robb

All photos in this article credited to the Youtube Channel Hobby View.

Four intrepid warriors made the trek to Grapevine to compete this year. Charlie Hauptrief, Mike Frazer, Sam Taylor and Tim Robb.

According to Tim the models were beautiful and the competition was tough. The 1/48 A6M-2-N Rufe that won Best of Show in Houston was second place in its category here. Best of Show was a USMC diorama.

I praised these folks for the excellent care this display has had for 25 years. Models ASMS has placed in prior years at the Museum of the Pacific War in Fredericksburg and at the Commemorate Air Force Museum in San Marcos were trashed out pretty quickly. Bummer.

I would vote to say no if those two ever approach us again.

I have already received emailed meeting notes covering the meeting and future plans from the airport decorating staff.

Hopefully this will be a fruitful relationship between ABIA and ASMS.

They saw a pretty 1/48 yellow winged PBY that was Best of Show at his last event but weren't sure whether it placed.

Charlie brought three ships and scored a second place. Tim took five airplanes and scored two firsts. His BF 109E and F6F-5 that were gold medals did not place. His F5-A that was first place at our 2023 show did not place.

1st 2nd and third medals were placed by the models on the tables taped to the correct entry forms to avoid error.
 Tim's red F104 was first in 1/48 single engine jet.

Great bargains were to be had at a few of the vendors. Monogram airplanes were selling for $5.
 After a visit to Bruam's for some ice cream the team headed home. A great visit to Scalefest.

The theme award which was Red went to a gorgeous red car.

Lots of great models at the meeting this month. Let's start off with Dave Edgerly our out of town contributor.

Dave has been working on several projects, the first being his Tamiya 1/12 scale Porsche Turbo RSR Type 934, a 1-160 Kenworth and a 1/48 Tamiya Heinkel 219.

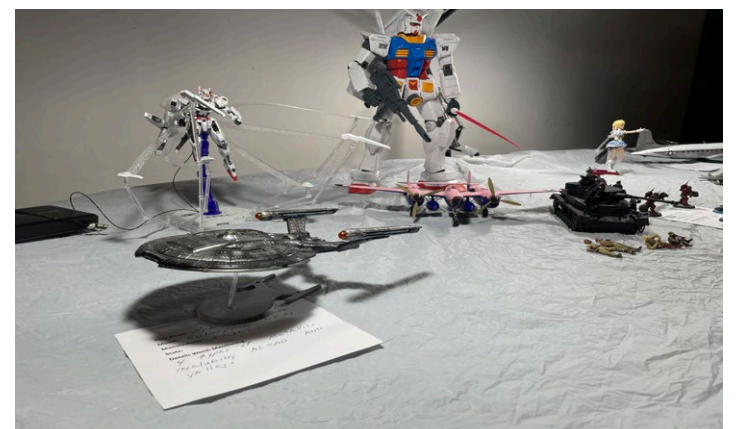

Ron McCracken brought in his C118 and F101A models before they took their places in the ABIA display.

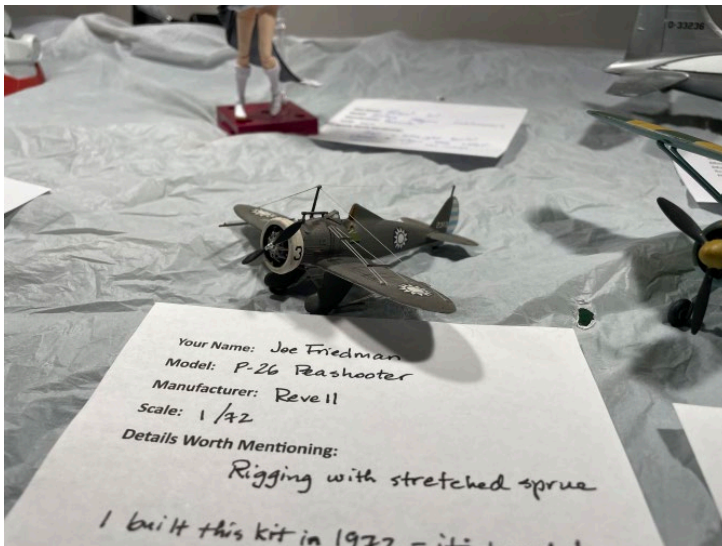

Gordon Stiemens brought in a Hobby Boss 1-700 scale Typhoon submarine.

Rick Herrington brought in his Atlantis Enterprise NX01 .

Joe Friedman brought in two models. The first was an Italeri 1/72 HS126. The second was a Revell 1/72 P-26.

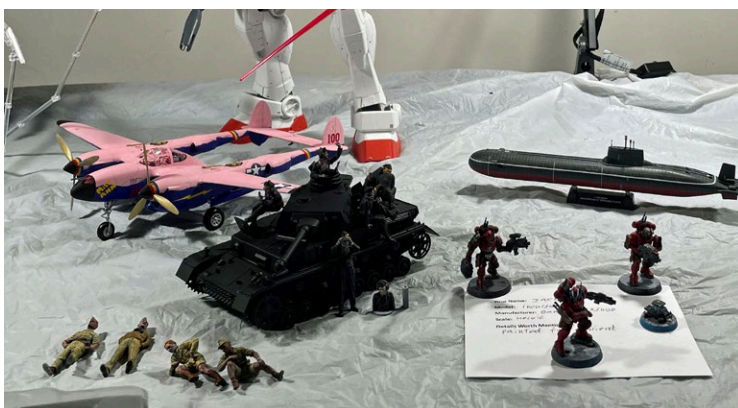

Jackson also brought in some Games Workshop 28mm Incursors which he painted for a friend.

Clayton brought in some 25 and 28mm figures including Pumpkin Monsters, Nightwalkers, a Salamander and a Knight.

Jacson Hunter brought in a Work in Progress with some 1/35 Panzer riders and a Panzer. The models are a mixture of Tamiya and Italeri.

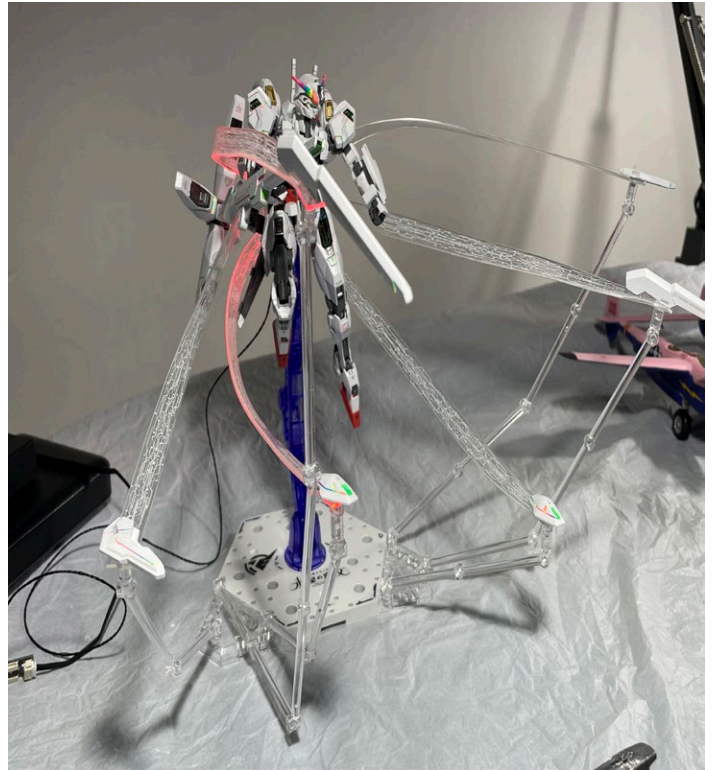

Fred Wang shared completed models, the first was a pink 1/48 Tamiya P38J.

The scond was a Bandai 30MS Meguru Hachimaya

Finally Fred shared a Bandai 1/144 Caliburn featuring fluorecent panel line and a Kosmos lighting kit.

Ron McCracken won model of the month with his Valom F101A

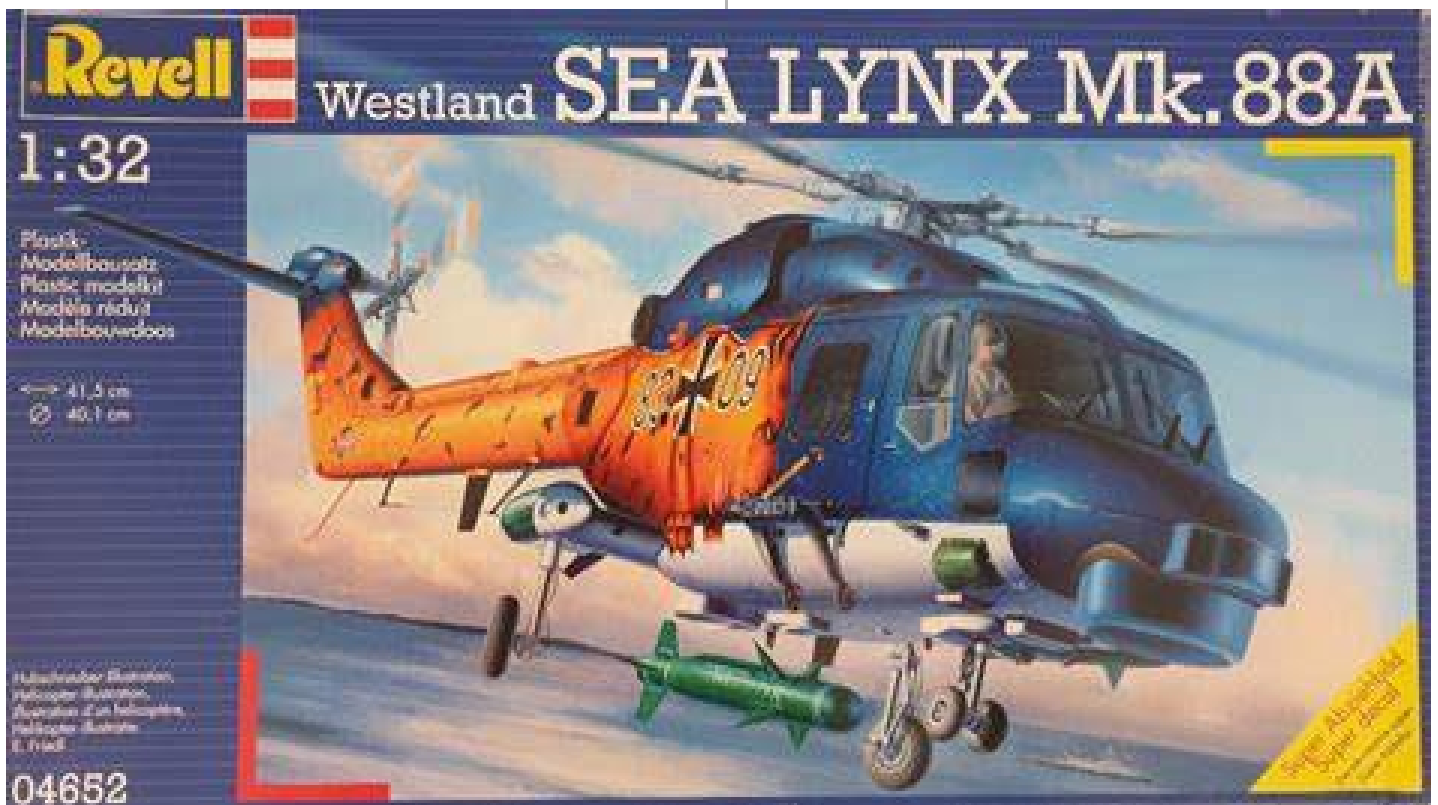

Old Rumors and New Kits

New and In View Aircraft by Ron McCracken

Offerings for June include three new-tool kits along with a wide selection of re-pops some of which include new parts or new decals.

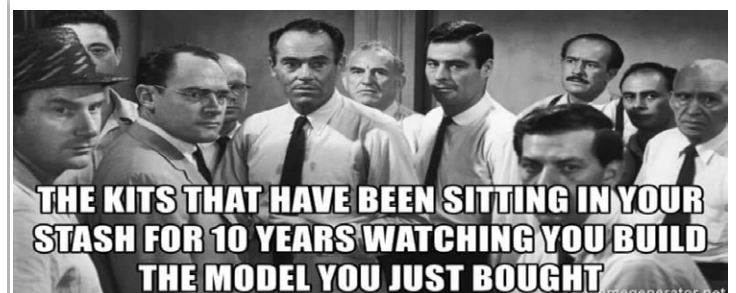

1/32nd Scale:

Revell has re-released their Sea Lynx Mk.88A with new decals for a very colorful aircraft.

1/48th Scale:

Dora Wings has released a new-tool MS.406C1 in Battle of France markings.

Eduard has re-released their Spitfire Mk.Vb in a Weekend Edition kit with Operation Overlord (D-Day) markings. Keep in mind the Weekend Edition kits lack refinements such as photo-etch, masks, etc. found in the standard kits.

Hasegawa has re-released their F-16CM Fighting Falcon in 'Maiden Flight 50th Anniversary' markings – and indeed the markings do look like those of the original prototype.

HobbyBoss has re-released their F4U-2 Corsair (the early night fighter variant) with some new parts.

1/72nd Scale:
Amodel has re-released their An-24 in an “early version” kit.

Amodel has released a new-tool EMB-110P-1 in Insel Air markings.

Dora Wings has released a new-tool Norseman Mk.IV with four markings options.

The advertisement features a yellow biplane flying over a green landscape. The aircraft has a red cross on the fuselage, a roundel on the wing, and the number '2485' on the fuselage. The tail has a vertical red, white, and blue stripe. The Dora Wings logo is in the bottom left, and the product code 'DW72034' and scale '1:72' are in the bottom right.

Eduard has re-released their B-26F/G Marauder in a Limited Edition kit with some new parts and several markings options including both U.S. and French markings.

The advertisement shows a silver B-26 Marauder bomber in flight, dropping bombs. The aircraft has '49-P' on the fuselage and '296 255' on the tail. The background is a cloudy sky with other bombers and explosions. The Eduard logo is in the top right, and the product name 'MARAUDER B-26F/G' and scale '1/72' are in the bottom left and right respectively.

Eduard has re-released their Bf 109G-6 in a Profipack Edition with six markings options.

Revell has re-released their Ar 240 with new decals. Since the last release of this kit was in 2008, it is timely.

1/100th Scale:
Platz has re-released their T-4 kit in Blue Impulse 2024 markings.

1/144th Scale:

Academy has re-released their KC-97L Stratotanker kit. As far as I can tell this is just a re-boxing of the original kit.

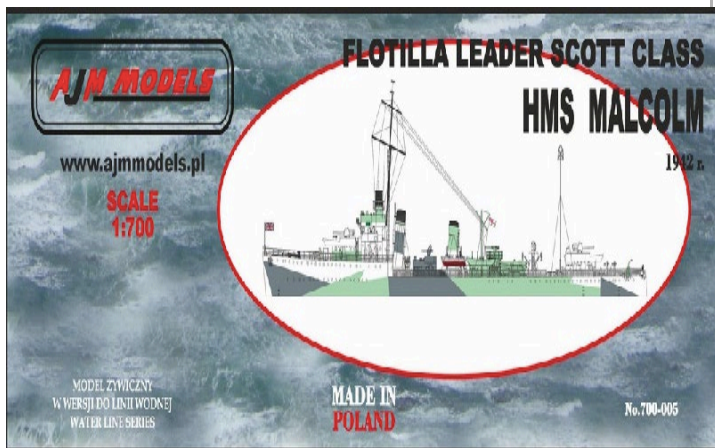

And there you have it for June. Go build a model!

Double Dog Dare Ya'

June 15th was the date of ASMS' annual Picnic/Auction. The Hauptriefs (Charlie's mom and dad) were kind enough to host this year and provide some savory fixin's (BBQ) for hungry modelers.

One of the features of the auction is to be able to Double Dog Dare someone to build a kit from the auction. Here's the list so far.

Seth Souza: 1/72 Airfix Puma by Tim Robb

Jack Johnston: 1/144 Bandai HG Gundam by Tim Robb

Ron McCracken 1/72 Vacform Seversky AT-12 by Tim Robb

Tony Wang: 1/48 Williams Btothers Pitcairn autogyro by Seth Souza

Tim Robb: Monogram 1/48 P-39 by Charlie

Brock Severson: 1/48 Hasegawa KI-27 Nate by Charlie

Sam Gurrka 1/48 Esci HS-129 by Charlie

Fred Wang 1/48 Lindberg Grumman Goose by Charlie

Charlie H. : 1/48 ICM Mig 3 by Sam Gurka

Gordon Stiemans: 1/144 Academy F4-E twin Pack by Ben Morton

Arthur Legge: 1/72 Airfix DH Tiger Moth by Sam Taylor.

Chris Chany: 1/72 Novo/Frog Blackburn Skua by Tim Robb

The contest for the 2023 DDD is scheduled for our July meeting and will also be the unveiling of the traveling Double Dog Dare trophy.

Please note the contest is for the DDD's received at the previous auction not this year's.

Thanks again to Charlie and his folks for allowing us to invade their home. A great time was had by all!

IPMS USA is soliciting articles. We've got some great modeller's in this area and you can help the mother organization to flourish by submitting an article to the Journal.

ARTICLES WANTED!

Maybe you build cars.
Or jets. Or figures. Or tanks.
Maybe you slap em' together.
Maybe you count every rivet.

WE WANT TO KNOW WHAT YOU ARE BUILDING

How did you built it?
What makes this particular subject interesting?
Do you have any special tricks?

Any IPMS USA member can submit an article on any modeling related topic to the IPMS USA Journal
The standard word count is 3000 and it should be well documented with high resolution photos

Join International Plastic Modeler's Society / USA

IPMS/USA is dedicated to the hobby (and fun) of Scale Modeling. It was started by Jim Sage, of Dallas, Texas, in 1964. There are now branches of IPMS all over the world. Our Local Regions and Chapters sponsor Model shows and contests every year, but you needn't be a member to visit the shows or attend the club meetings!

With IPMS/USA Membership, you will receive the outstanding IPMS/USA Journal six times a year - it includes features on all modeling subjects such as aircraft, armor, automotive, ships, figures - you name it! You will also find listings of IPMS contests, swap meets, hints and tips, and reviews. Membership also qualifies you to participate in IPMS/USA sanctioned contests, and particularly in our World-famous National Convention, held each summer. As a member, you'll also be able to access our online Discussion Board, where a wide variety of modeling topics are discussed, and enjoy interaction with other serious modelers for help with questions about modeling techniques or the Society in general. Many Hobby Shops and Model Vendors around the USA offer discounts to IPMS/USA Members.
